Hello,

Attached please find the roster of Benzo[a]pyrene panel members. They are the individuals who should be given access to HERO.

Thank you very much.

Hi Samantha –

Yes, any of you can send us (Team HERO at hero@epa.gov & cc: meacham.connie@epa.gov & jones.ryan@epa.gov) the CAAC Reviewers' names, but the CAAC Reviewers (any new NCEA-HERO database system user) must each take the initial step themselves.

Each non-EPA reviewer must self-register in the EPA Portal (and choose the HERONet Community), before we (TeamHERO) can get them fully in the Agency-side of HERO (where they can read the PDFs).

Attached is an instruction sheet on how they can register in the EPA Portal. We (TeamHERO) will finish the process, and email them when the process is complete.

Let us know the names too – so we know they have legitimate reasons for accessing the Agency side of HERO.

Best regards,
-Connie

Hi Connie,

You may recall that we've added the standing IRIS SAB CAAC members to HERO so they can get access to full text articles. The benzo[a]pyrene SAB CAAC panel has been augmented with additional experts that are not on the standing CAAC. I cannot remember...should the SAB send the names to you, Ryan, or teamHERO? How much info do you need?

Thanks,
samantha

Thank you very much.

Who is the contact person to set up HERO access to all panel members?

Subject: Benzo[a]pyrene: the HERONet version of the assessment for the Augmented CAAC

Hi Diana,

Considering the comments at the end of the public teleconference regarding the access to the HERO version of the assessment that allows a reviewer to sign in on HERO and access the full text article, I am resending the HERONet versions of the assessment for the augmented panel.

As was noted, the public versions (i.e., HERO version) that gives access to the reference and abstract is what is posted on the web.

Thanks,
Samantha
